EDUCATIONAL OUTINGS

*Learning is essential :
our priority is making it useful, but most of all enjoyable*

You will live alongside the French and share in their way of life

Antiquity, Middle-ages, Renaissance, The Golden age of wine-making at the end of the 19th century; this rich and varied past of Narbonne has given us a magnificent heritage.

Halley Language Experience invites you to enrich your vocabulary by discovering our exceptional heritage. Based on the package chosen, you will be able to discover 2500 years of Art and History. Narbonne was founded in 118 BC, and was the very first Roman colony to be established outside of Italy... The time-weathered stones of the Via Domitia, le Palais des Archevêques, ancient palace of the 13th century; the underground galleries of the Roman Horreum, Saint-Just and Saint-Pasteur Cathedral, the Lapidary Museum, the Charles Trenet's birthplace... are just some of the true treasures that Narbonne has to offer...

WINE WORKSHOP

You will visit prestigious vineyards and discover in-depth the culture of wine-making.

A taste of south of France

During your oenological journey you will learn some tips to train your palate, to blend and pair your wines and of course taste the wines! You will explore a world of flavour and the French art of living.

YOUR ACTIVITIES

You will discover our wonderful heritage and will have a rendez-vous with your 5 senses (according to your package, see details at the bottom).

« Built in 1093 and located near Narbonne, Fontfroide Abbey is a former Cistercian monastery. During the 12th century, the occupants of Fontfroide Abbey fought along Pope Innocent III against the heretical doctrine of the Cathars who lived in the region ».

During your visit along the coast and according to your package, you will spend time in the heart of this monument rich with its thousand-year history. You will visit this emblematic place in the Cathar country alongside your French coach.

In your “Enology package”, a gourmet lunch and a wine tasting at ‘la table de Fontfroide’ (3 stars in the Michelin guide) is included.

Discover the best local products while enjoying a country drive in the legendary Citroën 2CV “deux chevaux”.

Experience an adventure of flavours and sensations during this country-side tour. Enchanting, enjoyable, and delicious... what you will experience on this trip is only limited by how much of an epicurean you truly are.
